When Tuss first & later Bob H + I were after dinner, later more people would gather round room.
When he left hoping to be picked as the driver so we drove less. He liked you cause of your practical with many projects. So I was there and you were in your room. Poshik asked "where's Jard?" He liked you to drive him. He appreciated your non-politicalness - no one would be jealous of you. and he confided in you more relaxedly than me. He you served.
I heard him say
"Where's Jard?" several times in situations like that
