

TASSAJARA HOT SPRINGS 1969

Tassajara Hot Springs is open this year for its one-hundred-and-first season. Located in a canyon deep within the Los Padres National Forest, in the Santa Lucia Mountains south of Monterey, Tassajara is staffed by Zen Buddhist students, both men and women, who live and practice meditation there the year 'round. Here you will find an isolated but accessible resort, with comfortable accommodations and family-style meal service, where guests can bathe in the hot sulphur springs and the large outdoor swimming pool, as well as the creek, walk the extraordinary trails which fan out past waterfalls, deep ravines, rapids, Indian caves and into the primitive mountain areas; or just relax.

GUEST SEASON

Tassajara will be open, with full meal service, from May 9th through September 2nd, and from September 12th through 29th.

OFF SEASON

Guests may also come at other times before or after the regular season except during the formal Zen practice sessions or when weather conditions make the trip too risky. You must make advance arrangements for off-season visits.

There is no regular meal service during the off-season. Two units have kitchens, however, where guests may prepare food which they have brought with them. Or, should they wish, guests may share the students' vegetarian meals for an additional cost of two dollars per day. Please specify which arrangement you wish when making your reservation. Cooking facilities and student meals are available only during the off-season.

GUEST MEMBERSHIP

Those planning to come to Tassajara several times during the year, and/or for an extended stay, are invited to become guest members. This membership gives guests the privilege of making season reservations and receiving reduced rates. The guest membership fee is $25.00, payable upon application. Guest privileges extend to immediate family or two accompanying friends.

Reservations should be made by mail or phone and pre-season reservations may be made by guest-members on their application. However, no non-member reservations can be made for the guest season before May 1st. Reservations will be assigned on the basis of order received. If the space requested is not available you will be notified immediately and asked to confirm the alternate reservation we have tentatively made for you. Please include a deposit of one-day's rate for the number of persons in your party for the first reservation that you make. This deposit will be refunded if your reservation is cancelled three or more days in advance.

The following information should be included in your reservation request:

Dates that overnight lodging is desired, giving alternatives if possible.

Number of adults, and number and ages of children.

Room preference, if any. Give alternatives.

Number of double and/or single beds (or cribs) required.

All checks should be made payable to Zen Mountain Center.

CAMPING

Because of National Forest regulations, NO camping can be allowed.

Mail Address: Tassajara Springs, Carmel Valley, California 93924.
